

AdvanceMed, located in Nashville TN, provides healthcare analysis for Medicaid and Medicare services.

Summary:

Immediate openings for Data Mining/Statistical Analyst professionals, preferably with healthcare experience

Description:

Develops and innovates fraud detection data analytics, including designing, coding, and interpreting healthcare analytics

Uses SAS and SQL to conduct data mining, predictive modeling, rule-based algorithm development, overpayment calculation, and outcome reporting in a dynamic and creative team environment

Creates reports based on the findings of the analyses

Assists in implementing analytical and predictive modeling initiatives

Monitors data to ensure integrity and applicability of results to meet our client's business requirements

Education/Experience:

Data/statistical analysis experience is required

Healthcare data analysis experience is preferred

Strong SAS and SQL skills are essential

Strong verbal and written communication skills are fundamental

BA/BS degree is ideal with preference given to candidates with MA/MS degrees

Extensive data analysis experience may be substituted for the degree

Benefits/Rewards:

Attractive starting pay

Comprehensive benefits package: medical, dental, vision, 401(k), short-term and long-term disability, and many more

Vacation and sick leave

Incredible advancement opportunities

Tuition assistance

Continuous learning and development opportunities

Extensive mentoring program

Positive work environment

If interested, send your resume to:

Marc L. Capehart (Email: capehart@admedcorp.com)