

Minutes of Annual Meeting of Illinois Economic Association 20 October 2001

Meeting called to order at 12:15

Present: Carmel Chiswick, Barry Chiswick, John McDonald, Tom Smith, Dan Condon, Timothy Mason, Maude Toussaint-Comeau, Stephen Karlson

Thanks: A motion to thank Carol Martel, Alaina and Jennifer passed.

Secretary: Houston H. Stokes was made webmaster and Secretary.

President Elect. Louis Cain of Loyola University is the president elect of the IEA.

Next Meeting: The next meeting of the IEA will be 18-19 October 2002.

Finances. It was reported by Barry Chiswick that the IEA will break even this year.

Student Paper Competition. It was decided that students wishing to have their paper considered must submit a final draft by 1 September 2002 to be considered for the prize. Papers selected to be finalists must be presented at the student paper competition session. Steve Karlson will chair the selection committee. The judges will be drawn from a wide range of economic fields. It is anticipated that the student prize will be in the area of $100.00. All finalists will get certificates which will be awarded on Friday at lunch of the meeting. The final prize will be given on Saturday of the conference. The 2001 winner was Greg Sterijevski of UIC who wrote the paper "Kinks and Excess Sensitivity: Theory Simulation and Implication."