

Data from eight segments of the US business world from 1997 are given below. The order of the segments in the list below is jumbled. Identify the eight segments without looking at the last column by using the data from the first three columns.

210801

	Size of units 000s $	Labor cost / sales	Labor cost / employee	Industry Sales million $
1	6,911	11.98%	40,833	25,251
2	1,305	20.48%	30,710	639,482
3	10,477	15.05%	33,929	377,776
4	3,897	17.46%	35,103	293,575
5	8,127	5.54%	36,028	521,127
6	1,631	11.41%	13,726	1,561,195
7	3,742	12.45%	42,130	661,388
8	887	37.36%	27,251	2,077,666

Business Segments

Wholesale trade

Mining

Financial, insurance, and real estate industries

Manufacturing

Transportation, communications, and utilities

Service industries

Retail trade

Construction industries