For this kickoff to the 2010 Naptown Series Streetbowl Tournament Series, we're going to try something a little different. You will have 650k to build your team, but no more than 550k may be spent on players, coaches, cheerleaders, other inducements, and Lil' Shoppe items. The remaining money can be spent on ringers and bribes for secret weapons. So, if you want to purchase a ringer that is 130 gc, that is fine, you'll have 520 gc to spend on your team. If you want to purchase a ringer that is 80 gc, you'll still have 550 gc to spend on your team and the remaining 20 gc is lost. Note that you could only use the remaining 20 gc toward purchasing a bribe if the 80 gc ringer was a secret weapon.

Additionally, for this tournament, you may have up to two ringers instead of the usual 0-1 allowed for most Streetbowl tournaments. Since models aren't available for most ringers, please bring a proxy that is easily identifiable.
