Dear Colleague,

We, the departments of Ophthalmology at the University of Illinois at Chicago, University of Iowa, Washington University, St. Louis would like to invite you to attend our fifth Ophthalmology Update. We will review a broad spectrum of topics "from front to back." This meeting is oriented toward the general ophthalmologist and the subspecialist interested in a broad review of new information.

An early start and mid-day conclusion allows participants and their families to enjoy the beauty of the tropical setting and provides an informal setting for interaction with colleagues and speakers.

Please join us. We look forward to seeing you in Puerto Rico.

Regards,

Joel Sugar MD
