

Next steps after viewing “Finding funding opportunities” presentation

1. Register for our live class where you can interact directly with a grantwriting expert in real-time. This is a great opportunity to ask important questions and learn from a professional with years of experience.
2. Review the two other Grants.gov presentations to familiarize yourself with the entire process of applying for federal funding opportunities.
3. Visit the Grants.gov homepage: <http://grants.gov/index.jsp>.
4. Use the different search functions (by category, by agency, advanced) to find a relevant funding opportunity for your organization.
5. Review the important grant information outlined on slide 10 of the “Finding funding opportunities” presentation to make sure your organization is eligible for this grant. Copy the funding opportunity number and the CFDA number for future reference.
6. Sign up for email alerts for this specific funding opportunity using the funding opportunity number you copied in the previous step.
