

AH 122 History of Chicago Architecture
Robert Bruegmann
Tues.- Thurs. 11-12:15 320 SH
CRN 28592

This course is an introduction to the architecture and built environment of Chicago from its founding until today. It will include lectures and field trips. The textbooks will be Mayer and Wade's classic work Chicago: Growth of a Metropolis and the AIA Guide to Chicago.

Suburban Sprawl: London, 18th Century

