

AH 561 Seminar in Contemporary Architecture and Art Artist/Critic

Instructor: Judith Kirshner

Wed. 2:00-5:00 303 Henry Hall

CRN 26484

A seminar devoted to the ideas and practices of the artist as critic. Beginning with a tradition of artist/writers (Vasari), the course focuses on the past 40 year, ending with contemporary artists whose production is represented by both texts and visual work. Artists considered include Donald Judd, Gordon Matta Clark, Carla Lonzi, Nancy Spero, Dan Graham, Michael Asher, Martha Rosler, Francis Alys, Jenny Holzer, Monica Bonvicini and Gaylen Gerber among others. There will be visiting critics and artists, required papers and presentations.
