

Allium cernuum
NODDING WILD ONION (Lily Family)

in the Peacock Prairie at the James Woodworth Prairie Preserve

Whitish or pink flowers. Flower cluster either quite dense, or most or all of the flowers replaced by small bulbets. Leaves very narrow, 6-18" long. 8-24" high (20-61 cm). At the Peacock/Woodworth Prairie blooms about the 1st week of June through the 3rd week of June.