

Anemone cylindrica

THIMBLEWEED CANDLE ANEMONE (Buttercup Family)

in the Peacock Prairie at the James Woodworth Prairie Preserve

Lower stem leaves in a whorl of 5-9, with 3 leaves larger than the others. Large white or greenish flowers, $\frac{3}{4}$ " wide, on long stalks. The flowers are solitary or few, with 4-7 petal-like sepals and numerous stamens. Fruit a cylindrical head, $\frac{3}{4}$ - $1\frac{1}{2}$ " long. 1' - 3' high (30 - 91 cm). At the Peacock/Woodworth Prairie blooms about the 1st week of June through the 2nd week of July.