

Antennaria neglecta

CAT'S FOOT FIELD PUSSYTOES (Composite Family)

in the Peacock Prairie at the James Woodworth Prairie Preserve

Plants leafy at the base and usually forming dense mats. White flowers in small heads in a close cluster at the top of the stem. Upper surface of leaves dull green and woolly, largest leaves $\frac{1}{2}$ " long by $\frac{1}{4}$ - $\frac{1}{2}$ " wide, with 1 prominent vein. 4-16" high (10-41 cm). At the Peacock/Woodworth Prairie blooms about the 2nd week of April through the 1st week of June.