

Apios americana

GROUND NUT (Pea Family)

in the Peacock Prairie at the James Woodworth Prairie Preserve

Leaflets 5-7; brownish-purple flowers in short racemes. Flowers pea-shaped, ½" long, with a distinctive, sweetish odor. Leaflets egg-shaped and pointed. Usually does not grow higher than 3' (91 cm). At the Peacock/Woodworth Prairie blooms about the 2nd week of August.

