

WHAT CAN YOU DO TO PROMOTE SUSTAINABILITY AT UIC?

Tuesday, March 31, 2009

12:00 1:00pm

Student Center East (SCE) Cardinal Room, Rm 329

Featuring: Cynthia Klein-Banai, Associate Chancellor for Sustainability – “UIC Climate Action Plan,” Lisa Yun Lee, Director, Jane Addams Hull House Museum – “Re-Thinking Soup and Community Garden,” Margaret Moser, Assistant to the Director, Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research – “OVCR Eco Rep and Green Team”

Please join us to celebrate the theme of Women’s Heritage Month, “Exploring Our Footprint” and to kick off April’s Earth Month, this event will highlight efforts of UIC staff making their department more “green.” Learn more about what your colleagues are doing on campus and how you can promote sustainability in your office.

This event is designated as an official Chancellor’s Status Committee meeting thereby considered approved for employee participation. Please R.S.V.P to Jacquelyn at 996-4070 or jancius@uic.edu. (R.S.V.P. not required, but greatly appreciated.)

Co-sponsored by the Academic Professional Advisory Committee (APAC) and the Office of Student Leadership Development and Volunteer Services.