

DISTINGUISHED UIC WOMEN IN MANAGEMENT & SUPERVISION

Thursday, April 9, 2009

12:00 1:00pm

College of Medicine Research Building, COMRB Rm. 5175 909 S. Wolcott St.

Featuring: Cynthia Shanahan, Executive Director of Council on Teacher Education & Professor, Language, Literacy and Culture; Mary Beth Manheim-Watson, Director of Center for Research in Information Management & Associate Professor, Information and Decision Sciences , Vanessa Peoples, Executive Director of Grants and Contracts

Please join us in a panel discussion with our speakers who will talk about their experience in supervising teams/divisions, managing different cultures, working with diverse group of individuals and overcoming challenges awaiting women at a workplace. They will also give advice to professionals who seek to step up to leadership and managerial positions. We are hoping that this event will serve as an opportunity to all professionals as a way to meet with our speakers, learn from their experience, and expand networking with different UIC communities.

This event is designated as an official Chancellor's Status Committee meeting thereby considered approved for employee participation. Please R.S.V.P to Yesim at 413-1974 or yanter1@uic.edu. (R.S.V.P. not required, but greatly appreciated.)
