

CHICAGO TOWN MEETING ON CIVIL LIBERTIES AND NATIONAL SECURITY

Date: April 19, 2004

Location: Student Services Building Rooms (corner Harrison and Racine)

Time: 1-3:00 (reception to follow)

Parking: Enclosed lot on Harrison between Morgan and Racine

Contact: Donna Dorney 312-413-3030

Hosted by

Department of Criminal Justice

And

Center for Research in Law and Justice

University of Illinois at Chicago

The Department of Criminal Justice and Center for Research on Law Justice, University of Illinois at Chicago, announce a symposium featuring leading national and local figures in the discussion over how to protect national security and public safety while ensuring civil liberties. This discussion takes on even greater significance in light of the anticipated debate over the renewal of the Patriot Act and the Supreme Court review of counter-terrorism strategies. The symposium will center on issues ranging from privacy, technology and information to racial profiling, detention and immigration. The general public is invited to attend.

Presenters:

David Cole, Professor Georgetown Law Center, author, Enemy Aliens Double Standards and Constitutional Freedoms in the War on Terrorism (New Press, 2003)

Viet Dinh, Professor Georgetown Law Center former Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legal Policy and architect of the Patriot Act

Patrick Fitzgerald, U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois, a lead prosecutor in several significant counter-terrorism cases

Panel:

Ron Allen, John Henry Wigmore Professor Northwestern University Law School, a leading constitutional scholar

Doug Cassel, Clinical Professor of Law and Director, Center for International Human Rights, Northwestern University Law School, a leading activist and scholar on international law

Colleen Connell, Executive Director American Civil Liberties Union of Illinois

Thomas Kneir, Special Agent in Charge, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Chicago Office

Kareem Irfan, Chairman, Council of Islamic Organizations

Moderator:

Matthew Lippman, Professor of Criminal Justice, University of Illinois at Chicago

(To read short biographies of the speakers, click on “Speaker Bios”)