

Take a Walking Tour of the GLRSN Website

Point Your Browser to <http://glrsn.uic.edu> and let your fingers do the walking!

First and foremost, you will see the prominent placement of a what's new column, easy access to the GLRSN monthly newsletter, "The Wave" and a listing of upcoming events. Navigation menus on the left help you access the information you are seeking. In addition, the top portion of the home page contains links to Stroke Task Forces/Partnerships in the Great Lakes Region that have a website.

Registration for Quality of Care Teleconferences

In order to participate in a Great Lakes Regional Stroke Network/American Heart Association Get With the Guidelines quality of care teleconferences, you must register by going to the Great Lakes Regional Stroke Network website.

STEP ONE: Click on "Register" button next to the event listed under the Upcoming Events Section on the homepage.

STEP TWO: A new registration screen will pop up. Complete this registration screen and press "Submit." Fields that are marked with * are required.

STEP THREE: A confirmation e-mail will be sent to your inbox with the number, passcode and evaluation link for the conference call.

FINDING PREVIOUS CALLS

If you miss a call and are interested in listening to the recording (if available) or viewing the power point presentation and/or handouts, please note that you can view all previous GLRSN Quality of Care calls by visiting the Quality of Care portion of the Website.