The CALA MIDWEST CHAPTER (CALAMW) is the oldest Chapter in CALA. It was established in 1973 as "Midwest Chinese American Librarians Association". In 1995, it merged with "Chinese Librarians Association" to become the Chinese American Librarians Association.

The regular officers, elected by the chapter members are the president, the vice president/president elect, and the treasurer. The secretary and the special committees are appointed by the incumbent president to serve the same length as the president, include those for program planning, membership, electronic publishing, nomination, public relations, special task forces and state contacts. The election usually takes place in spring of each year.
