

STAR TREK WEEK

April 2-6, 2007

The Rainbow Resource

181 BSB, 12:00-1:30 pm

Free.

Watch Classic Star Trek episodes all week long.

Monday, April 2

Tribble invasion! Come make your own furry creature. Did you know they're bisexual?

Tuesday, April 3

Which one is better? Star Trek or Star Wars? Join us for a fun debate.

Wednesday, April 4

"From Star Trek to Heroes"----
Don't miss the main program at Illinois Room, Student Center East, 750 S. Halsted, from 4-5:30 p.m. Takei will also sign autographs.

Thursday, April 5

We'll pay special tribute to the strong women of Star Trek. Refreshments will be provided. Co-sponsored by the Women in Science and Engineering (WISE).

Friday, April 6

Do you like foreign languages? Then, come and end the week by learning the Klingon language and trying Klingon cuisine.

These activities are part of 2007 Asian American Awareness Month. Star Trek Week is sponsored by the Office of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgender Concerns. For more information call 312-413-3036.