Education

The College of Education is dedicated to fulfilling the distinctive promise of an urban land grant, Doctoral/Research-Extensive University. We are committed to leadership in advancing education that promotes the well being of diverse communities in local and global urban environments. We are dedicated to advancing scholarship through the dynamic interaction of teaching, research, and service in partnership with our community. We uphold the ideals of professional ethics, equity, and citizenship. Our scholarship seeks to develop groundbreaking inquiry that integrates our disciplinary fields of study with the social, cultural, and political strengths and needs of our context. Importantly, our urban land grant context influences the nature of the scholarship we conduct including questions we ask, our purposes for asking them, and the implication of our answers. Our scholarship shapes educational practice and its conceptual underpinnings to maximize the educational benefits for all.
