

Town Hall Meeting: Environmental Research and Education at the University of Illinois at Chicago

Tuesday, April 22, 2008 at 12pm
Student Center East room 713

The Institute for Environmental Science and Policy is sponsoring a town hall meeting to explore opportunities for environmental research and education within the UIC community, including prospects that support the new campus sustainability initiative. All interested faculty, administrators, and students are invited to brainstorm new ideas for research and education as the next step in expanding environmental scholarship over the next decade.

The meeting will include a panel of faculty members and administrators from across the university, followed by questions and comments from those in attendance.

Panel members:

Eric Gislason, Interim Chancellor, University of Illinois at Chicago

Russell Betts, Vice Provost for Planning and Programs, Academic Affairs

Peter Nelson, Interim Dean, College of Engineering

Eric Welch, Associate Professor, Public Administration

David Wise, Professor, Biological Sciences and the Institute for Environmental Science and Policy

Moderator:

Thomas Theis, Director, Institute for Environmental Science and Policy
