NINA T. SHEPHERD AWARD FOR STUDY ABROAD

The Nina T. Shepherd Award honors the memory of the founding director of the UIC Study Abroad Office and is made possible by the generosity of her friends and family. The award offers 2 $1,000 scholarships for the Spring 2010 semester.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- 3.0 / 4.0 Grade Point Average
- The award must be used to pursue a Study Abroad Office approved study abroad program during Spring 2010.
- The applicant must be a currently enrolled full-time UIC student, with at least 12 hours earned at UIC prior to application.
- Pell grant recipients and underrepresented students are encouraged to apply.
- Students must be registered for 12 credits or more during the semester study abroad term.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

- Application (attached)
- Statement of goals, which should be no more than 2 typewritten pages.
Your statement of goals should name the Study Abroad program and term in which you are participating, why you chose this particular program, and how this program will help in your short-term and long term personal, academic, and professional goals.
- Sheet that outlines the estimated budget of your program, including types and amounts of financial assistance you expect to receive (Financial Aid, scholarships, grants, and personal funds).
- Copy of your Academic History (printed from UIC Web for Students)

APPLICATION DEADLINE: October 16, 2009

For students participating in Spring programs.
