

FALL 2009
FLAHERTY SCHOLARSHIP

The UIC Honors College offers Flaherty Scholarships for study abroad, for which Honors College students may compete to help defray costs associated with participation in international study. The awards are made possible by a gift from the estate of Gloria Flaherty, former professor of German at the University of Illinois at Chicago.

Flaherty Scholarships are available in awards ranging from $500 to $1,500 to students applying for fall, spring, or full academic year international study programs. Scholarships awarded in Fall 2009 can be used only for Spring 2010 programs. The deadline for all Fall 2009 applications is Friday, October 23rd, 2009.

To be eligible to apply for the Flaherty Scholarship, students must meet the following criteria:

- Apply to a study abroad program endorsed by the UIC campus.
- Have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.40
- Be in good standing in the Honors College.

Please note that previous recipients of the Flaherty Scholarship are not eligible.

An application is on the reverse side of this form. In addition to the completed form, applicants must submit:

- A written statement no more than 500 words describing your motivation for international study
- A copy of your grade report (unofficial copies printed through my.UIC are acceptable)
- A copy of your 2009-2010 Financial Aid Award Package Statement from UIC (if applicable). This is available on the finances tab of my.UIC/UIC Connect.

Deadline:

Materials must be returned to the Honors College no later than 4:00 p.m. on Friday, October 23, 2009.

Note: If you do not complete all application fields and submit the materials above, your application will not be considered. Late applications can not be accepted.

These materials are to be returned to the Honors College office:

103 Burnham Hall, M/C 204
828 S. Halsted Street
Chicago, IL 60607

All materials must be returned to the Honors College no later than 4:00 p.m. on Friday, October 23, 2009.
