1. Two courses in Classics are required (exclusive of CL 100, 101, 201), chosen from the areas of Roman literature, archaeology, and history.

2. Each Lat 299 will study a different author.

3. Writing in the Discipline. May take Lat 299 with a WID component.

Note: Students who place out of one or more 100-level Latin courses may begin their six courses in Lat 299 sooner.

Note: Students must earn at least 40 hours at the 200, 300, or 400 level at a 4-year college or university. These hours may include hours in the major.

Note: The Ancient Greek will be revived in the future.

Note: The General Education Requirement for continuing students or new transfer students for fall 2007 is 3 courses in Humanities, 3 courses in Social Sciences, 13 hours of Natural Sciences, and a Cultural Diversity course. For new freshmen for fall 2007, the General Education Requirement is 9 courses: 2 laboratory courses from Analyzing the Natural World, 1 course from each of Understanding the Individual and Society, Understanding the Past, Understanding the Creative Arts, Exploring World Cultures, and Understanding U.S. Society. Two additional courses will be taken from any of these categories.

* These courses may be used to satisfy two of the nine courses in the new General Education Requirement.
