1. Satisfies Quantitative Reasoning. Math prerequisite must be met.

2. CRJ 301 must be linked with a specific 300- or 400-level elective course or a 3-hour independent study course. Consult major advisor.

Note: Prior to declaring a major in Criminal Justice, students must pass CrJ 101 with a grade of C or better.

Note: Students must earn at least 40 hours at the 200, 300, or 400 level at a 4-year college or university. These hours may include hours in the major.

Note: The General Education Requirement for continuing students or new transfer students for fall 2007 is 3 courses in Humanities, 3 courses in Social Sciences, 13 hours of Natural Sciences, and a Cultural Diversity course. For new freshmen for fall 2007, the General Education Requirement is 9 courses: 2 laboratory courses from Analyzing the Natural World, 1 course from each of Understanding the Individual and Society, Understanding the Past, Understanding the Creative Arts, Exploring World Cultures, and Understanding U.S. Society. Two additional courses will be taken from any of these categories.

* These two courses may be used to satisfy two of the nine courses in the new General Education Requirement.
