VIEW FROM ANOTHER PLANET: PUBLIC ATTITUDES AND POLICIES TOWARD CHILDBEARING IN ISRAEL

Distinguished Visiting Israel Scholar

Sergio DellaPergola

Hebrew University, Jerusalem

Sergio DellaPergola is the S. Argov Professor in Israel Diaspora Relations at the Hebrew University's Harman Institute of Contemporary Jewry and former Institute Chairman.

A specialist on the demography of world Jewry, he has published numerous books and over one hundred papers on historical demography, the family, international migration and absorption, Jewish identity and projections in the Diaspora and Israel. In the Jewish Journal of May 15, 2008, DellaPergola stated: "Israel at 60 faces three major challenges: identity, technology and politics. The future Israel will have to strive and struggle to maintain a credible role as the cultural and spiritual center of Jewish peoplehood. Demography will continue to play a fundamental role here, but the main challenge will be whether Israel can strengthen internal and transnational Jewish cultural bonds to preserve some consensus among the Jewish people."
