

JEWISH IN AMERICA, JEWISH IN CHICAGO

Hasia Diner

Paul S. and Sylvia Steinberg Professor of American Jewish History
New York University

Hasia Diner received her PhD in History from UIC, her MA from the University of Chicago and has strong ties to the Chicago Jewish community. A major contributor to its research, she also appeared in the PBS Television Series, The Jewish Americans. Her most recent publication, We Remember With Reverence and Love: American Jews and the Myth of Silence After the Holocaust, 1945–1962 explores the controversy surrounding Jewish response, or apparent lack of it, in the post World War II milieu of the US.
