

“Health and Immigration in Israel: From Melting Pot to Multi-Culturalism”

A public lecture by

Doctor
Nadav Davidovich

(Ben Gurion University)

Dr. Davidovich, the 2008-2009 Visiting Israel Studies Scholar in the UIC's Jewish Study Program, will focus the lecture on the mass immigration during the 1950s and the more recent immigration waves from the former Soviet Union and Ethiopia.

This is a FREE EVENT!
Refreshments will be served.

6:00 PM - 8:00PM

Tuesday,
September 23, 2008

@ the UIC School of Public Health
(1603 W. Taylor Street, Room 109)

Parking is available at the Paulina and Taylor Street
Parking Structure for $8.50

The Visiting Israel Scholar Program at UIC is sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago.

For more information:

UIC Jewish Studies Program, (312) 413-2102