

WOMEN IN THE ISRAELI COLLECTIVE

A Personal and Historical Survey of a Century
Of Changing Roles
and Aspirations

NANCY SOMORA GEBHARDT Lecturer and Associate Director of the UIC Jewish Studies Program.

Nancy Gebhardt spent seven years living and working in Israel during an era of great change in the collective identity.

She will discuss the role of women as it was conceived by the founders of the Israeli kibbutz movement, by the first women who participated, and by women who lived their entire lives on kibbutz; and by today's women, whose identities and goals have been informed by five generations of collective experience."
