

School of Literatures, Cultural Studies, and Linguistics
Book Subvention Application

Deadlines: Sept. 15, Dec. 1, Feb. 15, April 15

The Executive Committee will consider applications for book subventions for single-authored manuscripts (for those working on literary or cultural studies) and for primary-authored or co-authored manuscripts (for those working in linguistics). Edited volumes are not eligible for this award. Priority will be given for projects that could lead to promotion to either the associate or full professor rank.

Please submit application materials to Stephanie Chamberlin (saclarke@uic.edu), Room 1730 (Electronic applications preferred).

Date:

Name:

Unit/Dept.

Email:

Phone Number:

Amount Requested: (Up to $2000)

Title and brief description of the project:

Please attach the following information:

- 1) Any relevant supporting materials, including reader reports, contract, correspondence with publisher, etc. This information should include the dollar amount requested by the publisher for the subvention.
- 2) A description of how the funds would be used (e.g., general subvention to enable publishing, artwork, etc). The School will not give funds for indices.
- 3) Have you applied for or already secured funds from another source for this subvention? If so, what amount have you requested or been awarded by this source and, if applicable, for what specific purpose (art work, images, etc.)?
- 4) Brief statement from the head of the department that outlines importance of the project, and when relevant, whether this project is likely to play a significant role in building a case for a promotion in rank.