

Office of Academic Programs
Special Topics, Electives and Seminars
Fall 2010

NUEL 317 – Introduction to Critical Care Nursing

Instructor: Leipold, Catherine

Date and Time: Online

Course Description: An introduction to critical care nursing, focusing primarily on cardiac and respiratory conditions, hemodynamic monitoring, EKG interpretation, and mechanical ventilation. Observational clinical experience in intensive care settings. Prerequisite(s): NURS 335 or consent of the instructor.

Prerequisite(s): NURS 335 or consent of the instructor.

Hours: 2

NUEL 320 – Death And Dying

Instructor: Geri Gorman

Date and Time: Fridays 9:00 - 11:00

Course Description: Focuses on biopsychosocial and spiritual issues that arise for the patient, significant others, and the nurse clinician during the process of dying and death itself.

Prerequisite(s):

Hours: 2

NUEL 510 – Instructional Design and Delivery in Nursing and Health Sciences

Instructor: Johnson, J and Zerwic, J

Date and Time: Online

Course Description: Comprehensive introduction to teaching/learning theory, methods, and strategies for instruction and enhancement of learning in the classroom, clinical, and online.

Prerequisite(s):

Hours: 3

Office of Academic Programs
Special Topics, Electives and Seminars
Fall 2010

NUEL 518 – Advanced Diabetes Management

Instructor: Fritschi and Quinn

Date and Time: Online

Course Description: Provides the student with in-depth knowledge regarding the management of diabetes mellitus and complications.

Prerequisite(s): NUMS 515 or NUSC 535 or an equivalent graduate-level pathophysiology course; and NUSC 531 or an equivalent graduate-level pharmacology course.

Hours: 3

NUEL 536 – Forensic Nursing Science

Instructor: Painter, Susan

Date and Time: September 24, 2010 & October 22, 2010

Course Description: Focuses on the background, development, and theoretical foundations of forensic nursing.

Prerequisite(s): Graduate standing.

Hours: 3

NUEL 538 – Forensic Health Care for Vulnerable Populations

Instructor: Simmons

Date and Time: September 17, 2010 7 October 15, 2010

Course Description: Focus on the specific needs of vulnerable populations as victims of violence.

Prerequisite(s): NUEL 537

Hours: 3

NUEL 539 – Forensic Practicum

Instructor: Preib, Barbara

Date and Time: Online

Course Description: Completion of a practicum in a specialty practice area focusing on victims, families, and alleged perpetrators.

Prerequisite(s): NUEL 538

Hours: 3

Office of Academic Programs
Special Topics, Electives and Seminars
Fall 2010

NUEL 546 – Biometrics and Applied Statistics

Instructor: Eldeirawi, Kamal

Date and Time: Thursdays 9:00am – 1:00pm

Course Description: Application of recent procedures in statistical analysis. Emphasis is on design of experiments and regression analysis; use of BMDP software on Mainframe/VAX computers.

Prerequisite(s): NURS 525 or the equivalent or consent of the instructor

Hours: 4

NUEL 570 – International Dimensions in Women's Health

Instructor: Smith, Carrol

Date and Time:

Course Description: Critical examination of the health of women from a global perspective. Emphasizes resources and strategies nurse researchers use to monitor women's health across cultures and countries.

Prerequisite(s): Consent of the instructor.

Hours: 3

NUEL 594 - Special Topics: Advanced (Minority Health)

Instructor: Kim, Mi Ja

Date and Time:

Course Description: Discusses selected topics of current interest. Offered according to sufficient student demand and instructor availability. May be repeated. Students may register in more than one section per term.

Prerequisite(s): Consent of the instructor.

Hours: 1 to 3