

History Fair Deadlines 200_

- December 3, 200__ Summary of final project topic. Minimum of two paragraphs
- December 10, 200_ Bibliography with THREE sources related to your project in proper bibliographic format with annotations (one-sentence explanations of how each source is helpful in studying your topic).
- December 17, 200_ At least 10 pictures or visuals related to your topic.
Bibliography with at least ten sources in proper format with annotations.
Two page summary of what you have learned about your topic up to this point.
- January 14, 200_ At least 20 pictures or visuals related to the topic with typed captions
Typed bibliography with at least ten sources in proper format with annotations
Typed five page summary of what you have learned about your topic up to this point (for exhibit); or typed rough draft of paper, or typed script for performance.
Sample project titles.
- January 22, 200_ Typed draft of summary statement form (for exhibit or performance); or typed thesis and outline (for paper)
Mock layout with all visuals, revised typed captions, planned colors and graphics(for exhibit); or typed second draft of paper with parenthetical citations and visuals for appendix; or typed second draft of performance script with staging directions and lists of costume items, props to be used, etc.
Final title for project.
- January 28, 200_ Resubmit all materials listed for the January 22 deadline after making necessary revisions as indicated by your teacher.
- Week of Feb. 4,200_ Some class time will be devoted to putting the finishing touches on projects.
- February 7, 200_ SCHOOL HISTORY FAIR!